

we all know how powerful television can be in driving public opinion. The attempt by Sinclair Broadcasting to sway the election by forcing their stations to air an anti-Kerry documentary days before the election is a flagrant violation of their legal obligation to serve the public interest.